Dear Friend:

I am writing this letter after our telephone conversation this morning. I told you we are chartering a bus to make the trip. We have gotten no where trying to buy one, and our old one is causing me too many sleepless nights. I can not rest until the team returns from each trip. If you know anywhere we can get a new bus, please let me know.

As a result of our telephone conversation I gave the bus company the following schedule. I told them there might be some changes. As soon as you have it completed please let me know.:

Thursday July 18 Rochester
19 Erie
20 Warren
21 Cleveland
22 Dayton
23 Erie.

Wherever we play, will you please arrange for rooms for 20 men. Let me know where the hotels are. Abe will be with the team as you know, and I hate to have them get into a city, and not have rooms.

When you write please let me know the time of the games, especially the first one. I hope you have received publicity and line up by now.

Very Truly Yours
